Following 2023's much lauded sell out 'Refuelled! Tour', Mike + The Mechanics return for the 'Looking Back - Living The Years 2025 Tour'. Starting in March 2025 and playing through the whole of the UK, this tour will see them play their hits including 'Over My Shoulder', 'The Living Years' and 'All I Need Is A Miracle' as well as drift into some of Genesis's much loved classic tracks.

Mike Rutherford says "It's exciting to announce that we will be touring The Mechanics again. Getting back on the road with the guys last year was a real pleasure. Even though it had been four years, we slotted back into the old ways, the old jokes and the camaraderie like it had been a day! We had so much fun on the last tour and the audiences were so gracious and warm, when we played the final show in Dusseldorf we all agreed then that we wanted to do it all again. We can't wait to see you."

Originally formed in 1985 by Mike Rutherford "as a side project to Genesis", Mike + The Mechanics originally featured Paul Young and Paul Carrack as frontmen, and together, they achieved huge commercial success throughout the 80s and 90s achieving number ones all over the world and going on to sell over 10 million albums. After Paul Young's sudden death in 2000 the band released one further album before deciding to call it a day. In 2011, Mike started writing songs again and invited Roachford and Howar to join him and their chemistry was instant and they released 'The Road' album and the band began touring again with huge success and have remained together since.
